Art All Night Returns to Dupont Circle – Saturday

Washington, D.C. – The city’s only free nighttime arts festival, Art All Night, returns to the Dupont Circle this Saturday, September 14 from 7:00-12:00 midnight with an all-new lineup of visual and performing arts, workshops, and performances. Art All Night highlight the most innovative and creative artistic forces in the city, while providing a unique, around-the-clock experience unlike any other, in eight neighborhoods throughout D.C.

“Art All Night showcases the best that Dupont Circle has to offer,” says Bill McLeod, Executive Director. “The neighborhood is replete with art galleries and embassies, and we are rolling out the red carpet to highlight cutting edge local artists in galleries and famous painters and sculptors from around the globe in elegant embassies.”

Dupont Circle is hosting 22 locations to explore fine art, music, film, and fire in art galleries, embassies, Dupont Circle park, Dupont Underground, and some other exciting places. For a listing of all neighborhoods participating in Art All Night, visit www.DCArtAllNight.org.

“Art All Night draws thousands of people to discover the arts and entertainment around Dupont Circle,” said Cheng Sitole, event coordinator. “This will be the sixth year we have produced this event, and it continues to grow with larger crowds and more locations.”

Art All Night is underwritten by the DC Commission on the Arts & Humanities and the Department of Small & Local Business Development in partnership with Historic Dupont Circle Main Streets, Dupont Festival, and the Dupont Circle BID.

The mission of Historic Dupont Main Streets is to promote, coordinate, and maintain improvements of the cultural, economic, and environmental qualities of Dupont Circle to make it an exemplary place to live, work, shop, and play.
